Annual
Intergenerational Retreat Weekend

September 16-18, 2022
Camp Pecometh
Centreville, MD

What is RUC's Pecometh Weekend?

Camp Pecometh weekend is relaxing and renewing! You can do as much—or as little—as you want.

Arrival on Friday is from 3pm to 9pm. Eat dinner on the way or bring a picnic. After your car is unpacked, explore the grounds, and then gather in the recreation hall for campfire, fellowship, songs, and a goodnight prayer from Pastor Scott.

Saturday's meals are included. After breakfast, there are opportunities for crafts, canoeing, sandcastle building, model "recycled" boat building and relaxation. After lunch we will have more of the morning's offerings plus fishing and leaf painting. Feel free to just sit in a chair by the river all day if you wish! Camp Pecometh offers the perfect setting for nature watching, hiking, photography, reading, napping-- and time to just be.

After dinner on Saturday, there is a sunset vesper service followed by campfire fellowship and s'mores making.

Sunday morning's breakfast is followed by a river-view worship service.

When/Where is Pecometh Weekend?

September 16-18, 2022 near Centreville, MD on the Chester River on the Eastern Shore.
It is 77 miles (approximately 90 minutes) from RUC.
