Greetings in the name of our Elder Brother, Jesus Christ! It is a pleasure to be joining you at Rockville United Church as your Associate Pastor. So...who am I?

I hold many titles: singer, activist, writer, foodie, and pastor. I'm a local – while I was born in Georgia, I call Oxon Hill my hometown. I am a proud graduate of the Lancaster Theological Seminary and Dominican University (IL), and I can be best described as "real". I firmly believe that strangers are simply friends I have yet to meet.

Outside of parish ministry, I served as a High School English Language Arts Teacher and Speech Coach in Prince William County, Virginia. Ordained in the United Church of Christ in 2017, I am a member of the Grace Reformed United Church of Christ of Frederick, MD, and attend the First Christian Church of Falls Church (Virginia), Disciples of Christ. As a pastor fully committed to the full acceptance of all people in the church, my work around social justice allows me to serve all people, both inside and outside of the church. I have also served as interim pastor of United Church of Christ congregations in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Ohio.

My most important job, however, is husband to the best schoolteacher ever, Robert (Bob) Davis, and personal servant to Poppins, a 20-pound All-American dog.

I am excited to serve a congregation that believes in service: not just within the four walls of the building, not just within Twinbrook, but to the entire earth. I am also lucky to serve a congregation that loves neighbor as self. I look forward to working with you, side by side, as we strive to change the world through love.

Now...let's get to work!

With Love and Gratitude,

Rev. Guy S. Johnson
